Re: United States v. Maalik Alim Jones,
16 Cr. 019 (PGG)

Dear Judge Gardephe:

The Government respectfully writes on behalf of the parties to request a two-week adjournment of the current pre-trial motion schedule in the above-captioned case. As the Court is aware, the parties are currently engaging in discussions concerning a pre-trial disposition and believe that a resolution may be reached in the near future. Accordingly, the parties respectfully request that the pre-trial motion schedule be adjourned three weeks, such that the defendant's motion is due on April 18, 2017; the Government's opposition to the defendant's motion is due on May 2, 2017; and the defense reply, if one is made, is due on May 9, 2017.

Hon. Paul G. Gardephe, U.S.D.J.

The Government has conferred with Sean Maher, Esq., counsel for the defendant, who consents to this request in its entirety on behalf of the defendant.

As always, the undersigned are available to answer any questions the Court may have.

Respectfully submitted,

PREET BHARARA
United States Attorney
